CHAPTER 67.

AN ACT to amend section 4765 of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898, relating to the filing of certificates of criminal conviction.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4765 of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898 is amended by adding thereto the following: and in counties having a court other than the circuit court vested with exclusive appellate criminal jurisdiction, such certificate shall be filed with the clerk of such court who shall make a short alphabetical record thereof so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section 4765. Within twenty days after such conviction the said justice shall cause such certificate to be filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the conviction shall have been had, and in counties having a court other than the circuit court vested with exclusive appellate criminal jurisdiction such certificate shall be filed with the clerk of such court who shall make a short alphabetical record thereof.

In courts other than circuit, vested with exclusive appellate jurisdiction, certificate to be filed with such court, record to be kept.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 29, 1899.
